

About Shri S. Regunathan, Chairman – S M C

Shri S. Regunathan, IAS (Retd), Former Chief Secretary-Govt. of NCT of Delhi has taken over as the Chairman-School Managing Committee of Balvantray Mehta Vidya Bhawan Anguridevi Shersingh Memorial Academy. Shri S. Regunathan is a 1968 batch IAS officer, was the Chief Secretary of Delhi in 2004 along with additional charge of Principal Secretary (Power). He has served the Delhi Government in various capacities and was the Principal Secretary to the Chief Minister, Sheila Dikshit, in addition to being the Principal Secretary (Information Technology). During Shri Regunathan's tenure Delhi Government made great strides in the field of IT leading to a major computerization drive including making nearly 15 public dealing departments online. He was also the brain behind the formulation of the IT policy unveiled by the Government to make Delhi a cyber city.

Considered an officer of high integrity and efficiency, Shri Regunathan was also the main force behind the successful implementation of the Bhagidari Scheme of the Delhi Government and has been a strong advocate of transparency and openness in functioning of the administration. He understood the mindset of the Chief Minister of Delhi and was able to take forward the vision and idea of making Delhi a world-class city.