

Tributes to Lala Lajpat Rai at BM Vidya Bhawan event

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Balvantray Mehta Vidya Bhawan Anguridevi Shersingh Memorial Academy (BMVBASMA), Greater Kailash II, hosted founders' day of the Servants of the People Society to commemorate the 153rd birth anniversary of freedom fighter Lala Lajpat Rai.

The chief guest of the event was Sheila Dikshit, former chief minister, Delhi. The ceremony began with floral tributes to the founder Lala Lajpat Rai.

S Regunathan, IAS (retired), former chief secretary, Delhi, and the chairman of the school managing committee welcomed the guests.

Arun K Jain, vice chairman, SMC, Meera Tahiliani, senior member, SMC, Vasu M, CEO, SOPS, family members of Lala Lajpat Rai, members of the managing committee, members of the Servants of the People Society, members of the Rotary Club, Bharat Vikas Parishad, Transparency International India were also present at the event.

■ Sheila Dikshit (centre), former Delhi CM, was the chief guest

The chairman spoke about the ethos and objectives of the society and school.

The integrated cultural programme began with an amalgam of invocation, song, music and dance activities. The students showcased their creative skills with innovative performances.

Sheila Dikshit appreciated the management, teachers, staff and students for their dedicated hard work put in the event.

She stated that there are many ideas and innovative practices which are to be learned from this school particularly successful implementation of inclusive environment for the special need children. The products made by special need children were appreciated by all.